

HII

DefenseTech 2026

LIVE

Gen. Victor Eugene “Gene” Renuart (USAF, Ret.)

Former Commander, U.S. Northern Command
President, The Renuart Group, LLC (TRG)

General Victor Eugene “Gene” Renuart, USAF (Ret), is the President of The Renuart Group, LLC (TRG). His principle focus at TRG has been to provide strategic advice to DoD agencies and major international defense corporations as well as develop commercially backed Public, Private Partnerships designed to assist the DoD in budget-constrained infrastructure requirements. Further, he advises clients on topics ranging from Organizational Leadership and Strategy to Electro Optics to Machine Learning and AI to Cyber Security to High-Speed Autonomy and Unmanned Aerial Vehicles to Satellite Communications and Wireless 5G Networks.

General Renuart’s Air Force career culminated as Commander, NORAD and US Northern Command after nearly 39 years of distinguished service. In this last role, he was responsible for providing for the Homeland Defense and Defense Support to Civilian Authorities for the United States, and for partnering with Canada and Mexico in broader security issues for North America. He was also responsible for building the interagency cooperation necessary for the Department of Defense to partner successfully in support of over 55 government partners and 54 States, Districts, and Territories. Gen. Renuart served as Senior Military Assistant to both Secretaries of Defense Rumsfeld and Gates and as the Director of Strategy, Policy and Planning (J-5) for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He also served as the Director of Operations (J-3) at US Central Command on and after 9/11, where he was responsible for the planning and execution of all combat and humanitarian operations in Afghanistan and Iraq from 2001 to 2003. In all these roles, he was responsible for budgets of over $2B and led organizations of over 17,000 people. The General has flown over 60 combat missions, in both the A-10 and F-16, in a variety of US and Coalition operations.

In his private sector roles, he serves as a Board Chair or Outside Director for one publicly traded company and three privately held technology corporations and as well as a Senior Advisor to Indiana’s non-profit “Indy Autonomous Challenge”. He is a past member of the UCHHealth System Board of Directors, a graduate of the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University, and holds a Masters Degree from Troy University.

General Renuart is a member of the Military Advisory Group of the US Global Leadership Coalition (USGLC), a Life member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a member of the Dean’s Advisory Council at Indiana University’s Hamilton Lugar School of Global and International Studies, and a member of the Indiana University Foundation Board.